MEETING ROOM RULES & REGULATIONS

1. All companies applying for a meeting suite must have a separate exhibit booth at ACG 2026; however, there is no minimum size requirement.
2. Suites are intended to be used for staff and/or client meetings.
3. Suites will include a welcome reception counter with a stool, structure with locking door, carpeting, table and chairs for 4 people and a waste basket.
4. The exhibitor is responsible for the ordering and payment of all AV equipment, services, food and beverages and other rentals for the meeting room. All orders made through the convention center for the meeting suites are the sole responsibility of the exhibitor.
5. The subletting, assignment, or apportionment of the whole or of any part of space by any exhibitor is prohibited. No exhibitor may permit any other party to exhibit or meet in his or her meeting space any goods other than those manufactured or handled by the contract exhibitor or permit the solicitation of business by others within the space.
6. The safekeeping of the exhibitor's property shall remain the responsibility of the exhibitor. Exhibitors should not leave valuable materials or equipment in the meeting suite when no one is present. If security is required in your meeting room during or after normal conference hours, you may contract directly with ACG's security contractor for that service.
7. Any booth cancellation will automatically result in cancellation of the meeting suites. Cancellation fees will apply.
8. The applicant agrees to abide by all rules and regulations, requirements and restrictions as set forth in the Exhibitor Rules & Regulations manual.
9. No video recording in meeting suites, including by media, may be done without prior written permission from the ACG.
